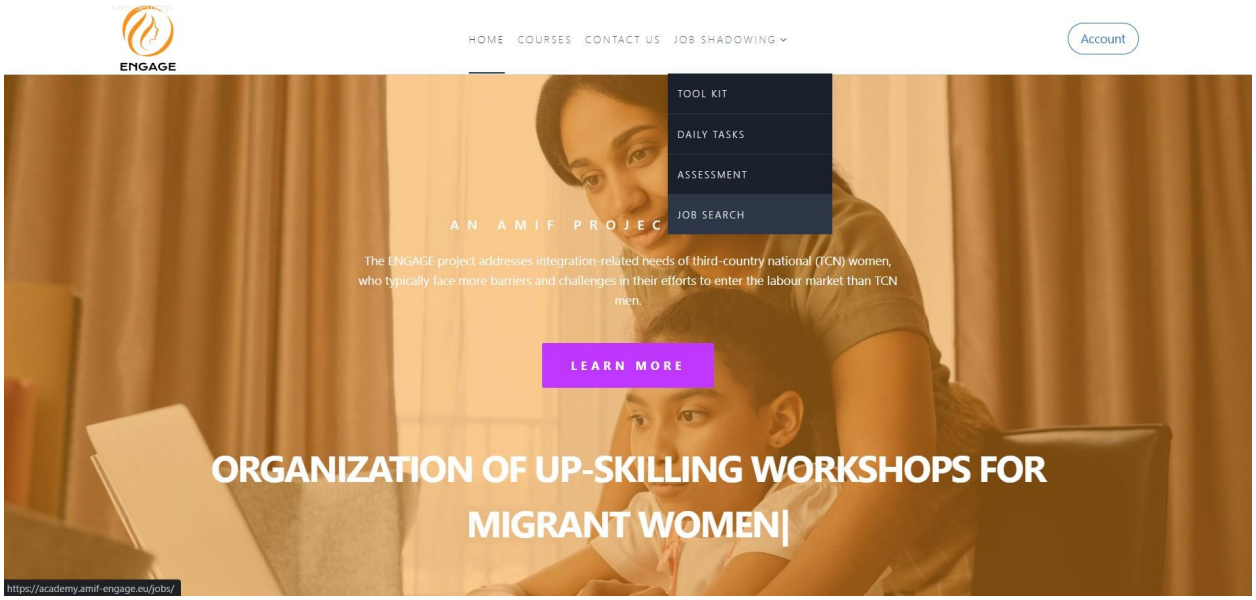
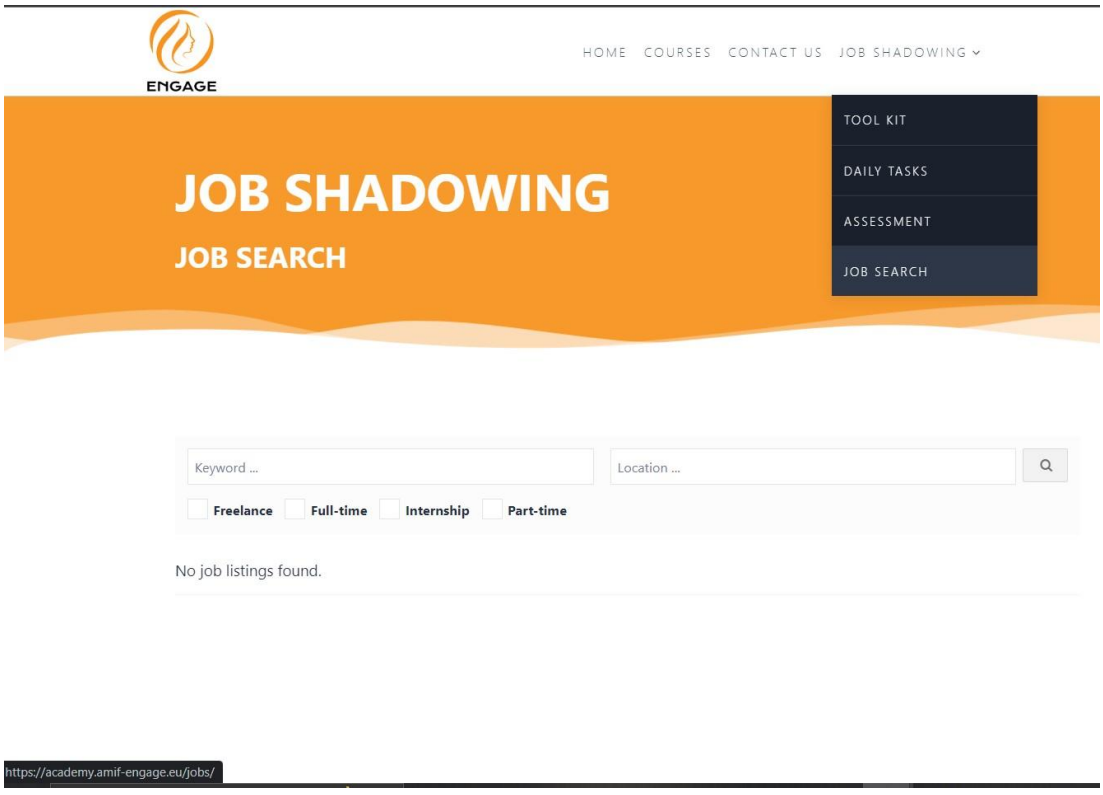
Job Search Documentation

1. Click the Job Shadowing Menu on the Header bar and Select Job Search.

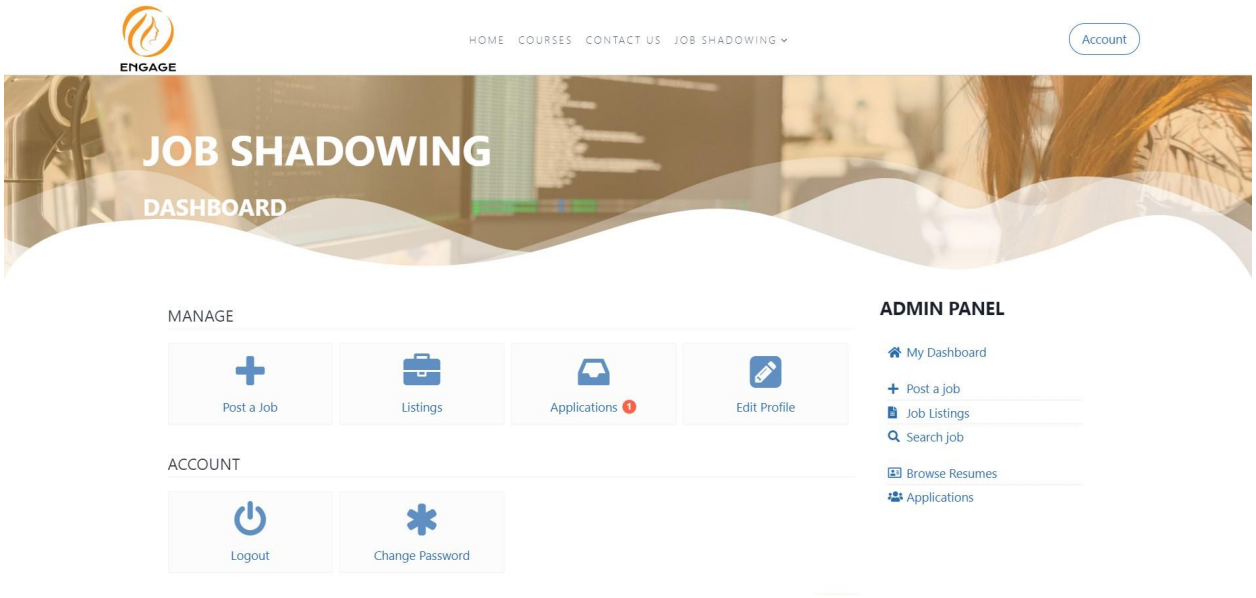


2. On the Job search page an Employer, Instructor and Student can search for a job.

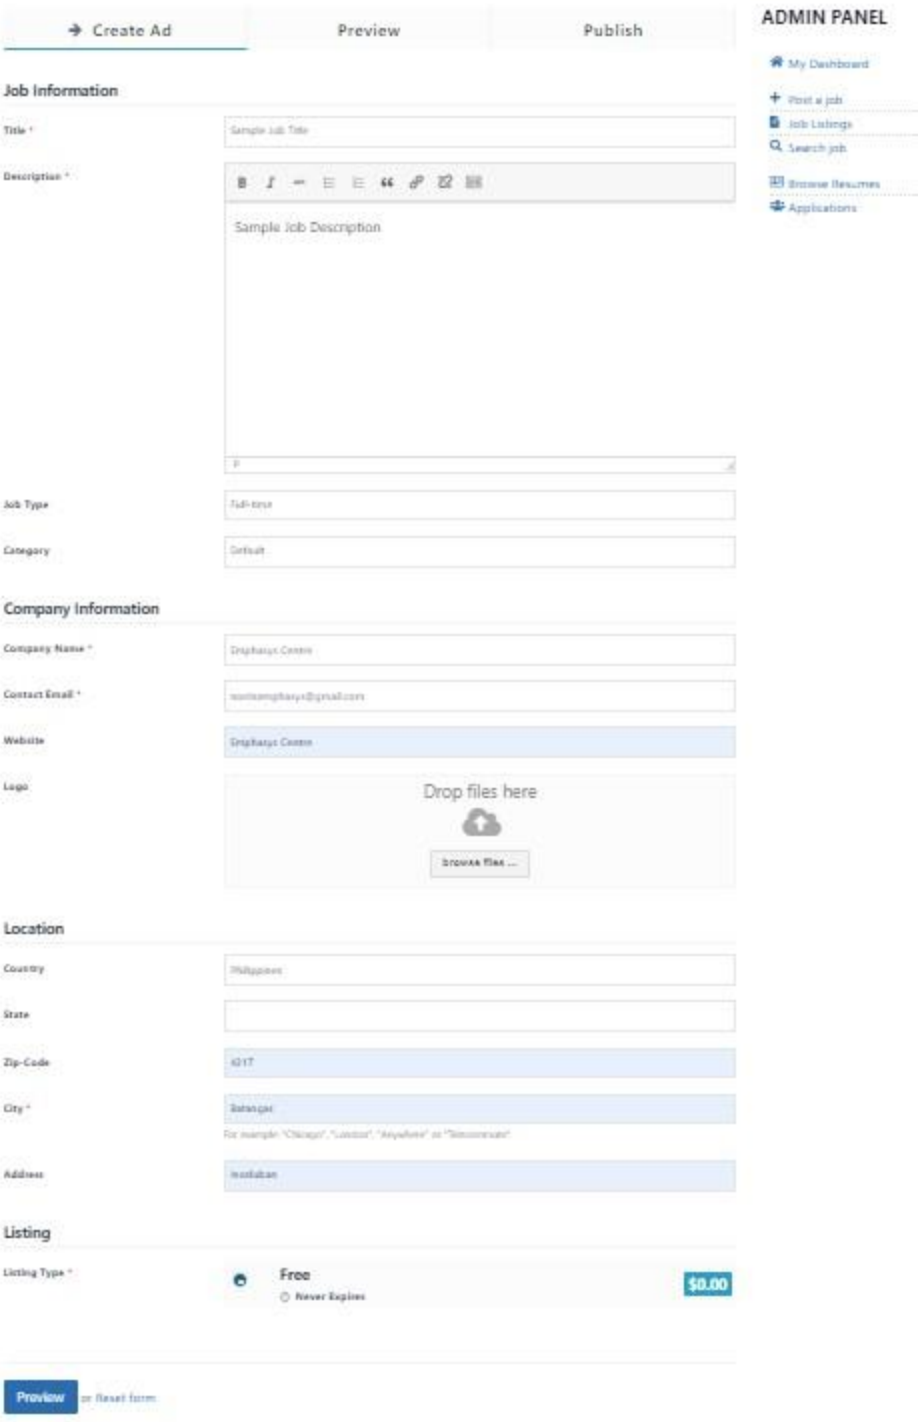


Employer Admin Panel

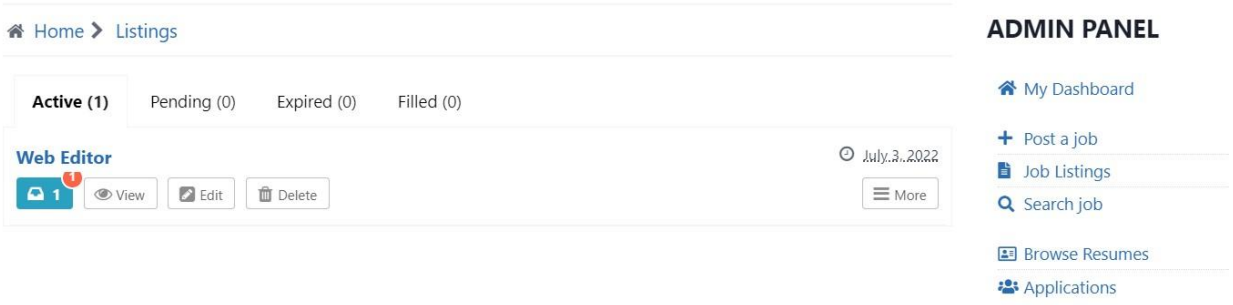
1. The Admin Panel contains the Admin Dashboard that has the following:
   1.a Post a job - Create a job posting
   1.b Listing - Show all available job posts.
   1.c Applications - Show all people who applied for all of the job posts.
   1.d Edit Profile - Edit Employer/Company Profile.



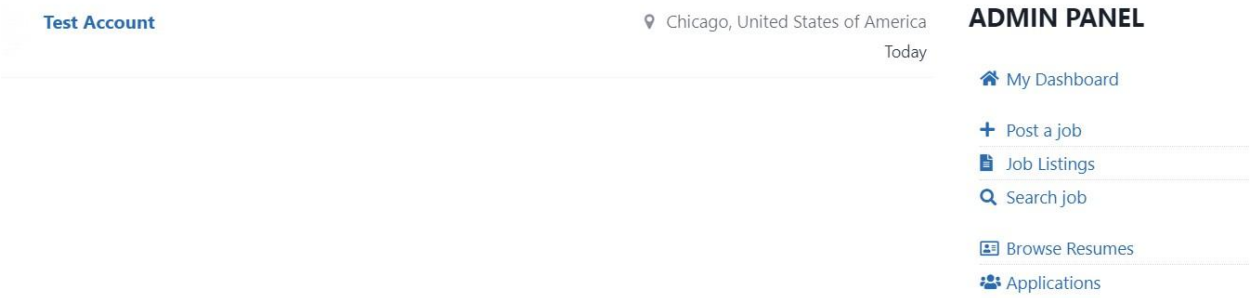
2. The Admin panel contains the Post A Job. Fill out the details to create a job post.
   2.a Title - the Job title
   2.b Description - description of the job.
   2.c Job Type - Freelance, Full time, Part time, Internship
   2.d Category - no available categories left unless we want to add.
   2.e Company Information - contains the company name, email, website and logo.
   2.f Company location - contains the company location datas
   2.g Listing - always toggle as free.



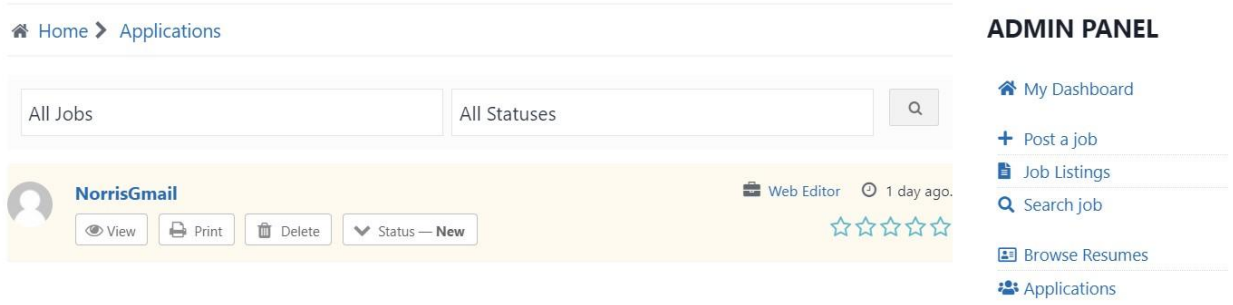
3. The Admin panel contains the Job Listing. Contains all the available job posting of the Employer



4. The Admin panel contains the Browse Resume. Employers can see all the available Resumes.

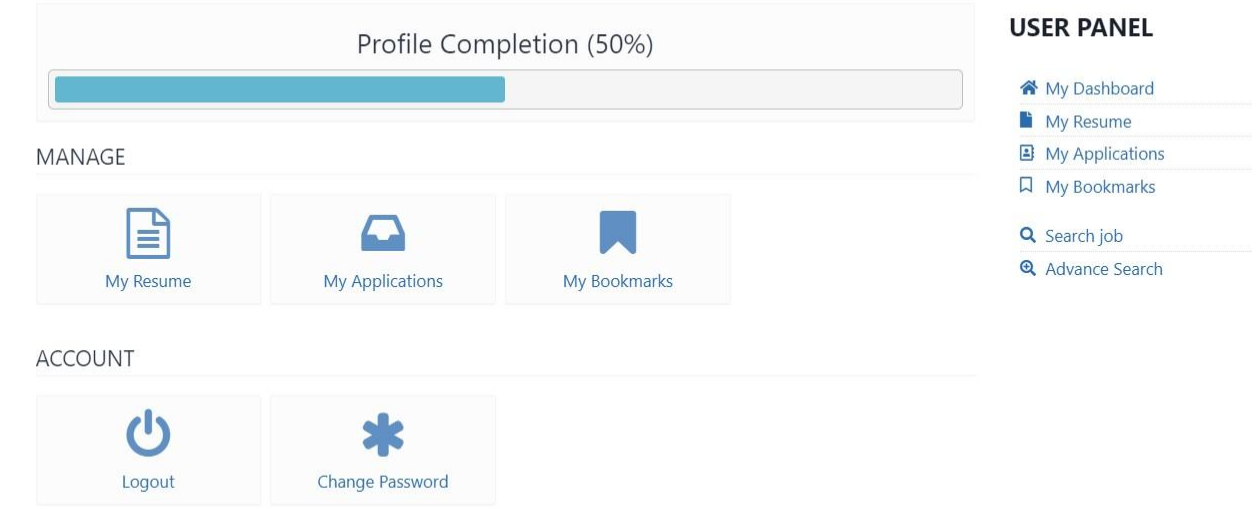


5. The Admin panel contains the Applications. Applications can see all the applications of all the applicants on the employers job listing.

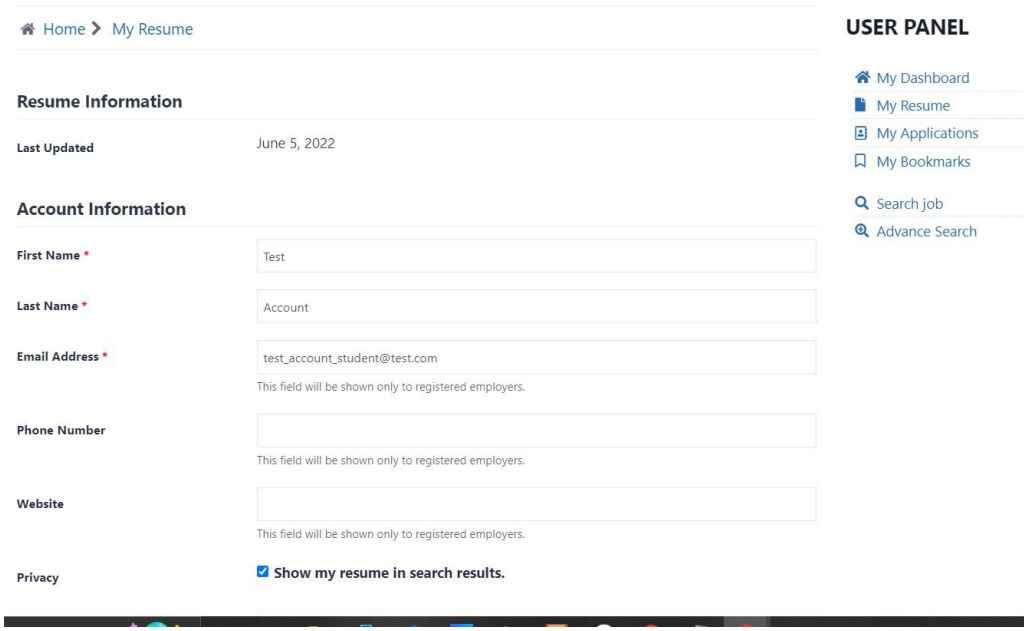


User Panel (Student and Instructor)

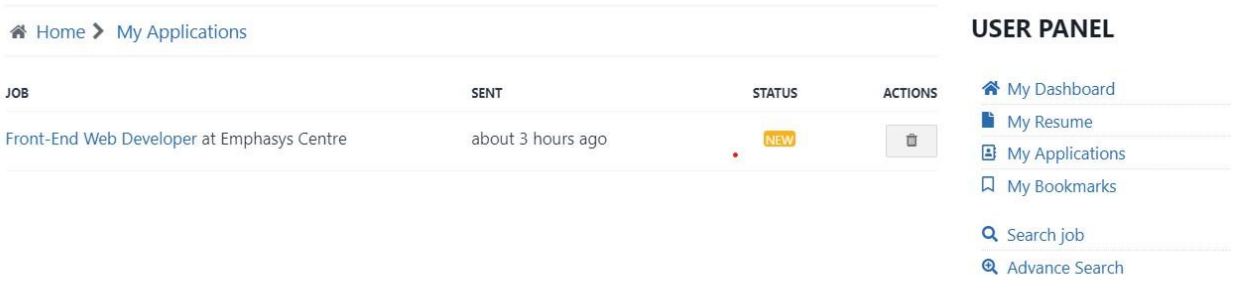
1. The User Panel contains the User Dashboard that has the following:
   1.a My Resume - Create and show resume details.
   1.b My Applications - Show all sent applications to employers/companies
   1.c My Bookmarks - Show all favorited job posting
   1.d Search Jobs - search for all available jobs.
   1.e Advanced Search - more details search of available jobs.



2. The Admin panel contains the My Resume. Contains all the information of the applicants.



3. The Admin panel contains the My Applications. Contains all the Job Applications of the user.



4. The Admin panel contains the My Bookmarks. Contains all the Favorited Jobs of the user.

5. The Admin panel contains the Advance Search. Contains a more detailed search of available jobs.